HOPE GROWS

Nvou Gyang has the same desires as most other mothers: for her children to grow up happy, healthy, and whole. A few years ago, Nvou couldn't even imagine a future for her four boys. Armed attackers destroyed their village in Nigeria, killed her husband, and stole their farm.

Traumatized, hungry, and homeless, the family made their way to a nearby village where they found fresh possibilities for help and healing through World Renew's Free A Family® program.

First, Nvou joined a trauma-healing group that connects her with those in her community who have experienced violent loss. She then joined a savings and loan group and started a business selling bananas.

Now Nvou can feed her sons daily, pay their school fees, and save money. Today, she thanks God for opportunities to give her children the deepest desires of her heart. Your gift to World Renew for the Free A Family® program powerfully changes people's lives. Will you consider supporting families today as they work to overcome extreme poverty?
