

But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations. Psalm 33:11

Profound joy. It comes from leaving poverty in the dust.

The Christian Reformed World Relief Committee (CRWRC) has helped people living in poor communities work their way out of poverty since 1962. It's work that connects people with their God-breathed dignity and makes visible the love of the Savior who stuns our hearts with justice and mercy.

In 2012, CRWRC is recognizing 50 years of addressing hunger, poverty, and disaster. The world has changed a lot in that time, but the purposes of God's heart have remained firm: his heart for the poor never changes—nor does our responsibility to “love our neighbor as ourselves.”

From generation to generation, God calls us to care for the orphan and widow, to speak against injustice, and to live a life of love and action with our global neighbors. It is a call that is as personal as our own heartbeat—an expression of our love and gratitude for him.

CRWRC's 50th anniversary in 2012 is a wonderful opportunity to proclaim God's faithfulness yesterday, today, and forever. It's an opportunity to say thank you to God for his faithfulness, and also to you. Thank you for your prayers, your involvement, and your generosity.

CRWRC exists because the deacons and people of the Christian Reformed Church work together to make a difference. CRWRC is blessed to carry out that ministry on your behalf. Thank you for all you have done to bring deep joy into the lives of the poor.

As we celebrate the past, we also look to the future. Please continue to support CRWRC with your financial gifts, involvement, and prayers. It's a profound joy to follow God's heart with you by serving our neighbors in need nearby and around the world.

Your 50th anniversary donation can be given through your congregation's offering, or by mailing your check to the appropriate address below. Give online at www.crwrc.org, or by calling the tollfree number below.
