

Thank you for giving the gift of a FARM TEAM

The gift of animals to raise can be a step toward transformation in peoples' lives. A calf, a chicken, a duck, a goat, and a pig—we call it a Farm Team—offers abundance for the lives of many.

Around the world, World Renew offers programs in animal raising to help people improve their health and livelihoods while moving beyond subsistence and to lives of abundance. The addition of eggs, milk, and meat to a family's diet bolsters their health and their ability to work and study. When a family can sell extra eggs, milk, meat, and even animals, they can stabilize their income and afford things like medicine, school fees, and building supplies. World Renew and its local partners offer training and support in animal raising to people whose lives depend on their success.

In Cambodia, Yun and Neum received two cows from a World Renew "cow bank" in their village. After paying the bank back with a calf and generating extra income from selling milk, the couple was able to improve their family's nutrition and afford school fees for their three children. Two cows equals better health, more income, education. Abundance.

In Kenya, Mrs. Wangui Kinna lost her cow in a drought, and she wasn't sure how she would support her family. She accepted a goat and training in its care, and she is delighted with how little water and active care it needs compared to her cow. She has been able to buy medicine with income from selling goat milk, and she has better health and more time for her family because caring for goats takes less time. One goat equals medicine, more time, better health. Abundance.

In Laos, Tong Lee and his family were among the poorest people in their village, and they were chosen to receive two pigs from World Renew. With training and support, Tong has turned this small gift into a catalyst for change in his life. His family's income is stable and growing, and he is now an active volunteer in his village, serving as a veterinarian and a village health worker. Two pigs equals stable income, success, service. Abundance.

With your gift of the Farm Team, you are offering remarkable opportunities to many people. Abundance.

"... I HAVE COME THAT THEY MAY HAVE LIFE, AND HAVE IT TO THE FULL."
